

EHS-MS Governance Framework

For details about the EHS Management System (EHS-MS) see the EHS-MS Manual

Updated: February, 2024

*Below are the committees, DLCIs (department, lab, center, institute), programs, and/or EHS roles that comprise the entities listed above.

Institute Council On EHS	Executive Vice President and Treasurer	MIT EHS Office
Chairs of Institute Committees and Administrative Units: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Animal Care • Assessment of Biohazard & Human Embryonic Stem Cell Research Oversight • Campus Services & Stewardship • Environment, Health and Safety • Lincoln Laboratory • Radiation Protection • Reactor Safeguard • Toxic Chemicals • Use of Humans as Experimental Subjects 	Audit Division Facilities Finance Human Resources Information Systems & Technology MIT Health Public Safety Sustainability	Biosafety Environmental Management Radiation Protection Industrial Hygiene Occupational & Construction Safety
	DLCI EHS Committee Senior Faculty Chair EHS Coordinator - co-chair EHS Office Lead Contact DLC IFaculty/ Researchers	Chancellor Athletics Campus Activities Complex Division of Student Life Housing & Residential Services Dining Endicott House

Note: This chart is intended for illustrative purposes only. It does not fully reflect the complexity or nuances of the EHS or MIT's organizational hierarchy. For more detailed information, please refer to the EHS-MS Manual and the MIT Organization Chart or consult with appropriate MIT EHS personnel.